ATHLETE ODDS:

- Total athletes per country: fourteen (14), distributed equally between seven (7) female athletes and seven (7) male athletes.

Note: The places allocated to each gender are independent; therefore, if the quota for one gender is not filled, the available places cannot be transferred or used by athletes of the other gender.

In each individual event, each participating country may register only one (1) athlete per weight category.

For the mixed team event, each participating country may register a maximum of one (1) team.

COMPETITION FORMAT:

- The Judo events will be held in three (3) days, with the competition being held from the elimination phase to the medal dispute of each event on the same day.
- For weight classes of up to five (5) athletes, the round-robin system will be used.
- For weight categories of six (6) or more athletes, a double repechage system will be used.
- In a double repechage, for each category, athletes will be divided into two (2) groups by lottery, and an elimination system will be used to produce two (2) finalists, who will compete for the gold medal.
- The athletes who lost to the four semifinalists compete in the two (2) repechage groups. The winners of each of these two (2) repechage groups will compete for the bronze medal against the loser of the semifinal bout of the respective opposing group. The winners (2) of those fights are in third place.
- The official weigh-in of each weight category will take place the day before and lasts thirty minutes. Forty minutes before the official weigh-in, the weigh-in place will be open, with the official scales so that the athletes can carry out the unofficial weigh-in. The unofficial weigh-in will last thirty minutes.
- On the day of competition, a random weigh-in will be carried out, of four (4) athletes per weight category, called "Random weigh in", where each athlete drawn will be weighed again, with a margin of 5% over their weight category; This weigh-in will take place one hour before the start of the event and lasts 45 minutes.
- Any athlete who does not pass the official or 5% weigh-in will be eliminated from the competition.

Mixed Team Test:

- Up to five (5) teams, the round-robin system will be used.
- From six (6) or more teams, a repechage system will be used from the quarterfinals (Last 8).
- In a quarter-final play-off, teams will be divided into two (2) groups by lottery, and an elimination system will be used to produce two (2) finalists, who will compete for the gold medal.
- The teams defeated in the quarterfinals will compete in two (2) repechage matches. The winners of each of these two (2) repechage bouts will compete for the bronze medal against the loser of the semifinal bout from the respective opposing group.
- The winners (2) of those fights are in third place. The losers (2) are in fifth place. - A seeding of the four (4) best teams will be held according to the world ranking of senior mixed teams of the International Judo Federation, in force for the date of the competition.
- Since the mixed team event is after an individual event, the following weigh-in rules will apply:
 - o Athletes competing on the final day of the individual event, who are registered in the mixed team "over" categories (Women's +70 kg and Men's +90 kg), do not need to be weighed for mixed teams.

- All athletes in the "less" mixed team categories (Female –57 kg, Female –70 kg, Male –73 kg and Male –90 kg) MUST be weighed.
- A weight tolerance of +5% will be given for athletes who competed in the individual event (must have passed the official weigh-in) and there will be NO tolerance for athletes who are only registered for the mixed team event or who did not pass the official weigh-in of the individual event.

Weight Class	Athletes classified only in these individual categories will be able to participate in The Mixed Team Category	Categories with tolerance +5%
-57 kg	Women (-48 kg, -52 kg, -57 kg)	Up to and even 59.9 kg
-73 kg	Men's (-60 kg, -66 kg, -73 kg)	Up to and even 76.7 kg
